

Concerned about how climate change, oil dependency,
and volatile markets will affect our food supplies?

Interested in how secure our food supplies will be?

Then whether you're a local farmer, a grower, a food producer, or a consumer, come and join our 'question time' panel discussion on

THE FUTURE OF LOCAL FOOD AND FARMING

chaired by Mark Harper MP

and on the panel:

- Julia Evans livestock farmer, former chair Herefordshire NFU
- Charles Martell farmer, cheese-maker, local food advocate
- Dr James Kirwan food policy specialist, University of Gloucestershire
- Anthony Snell fruit grower, chair NFU West Midlands Horticulture Board

Friday 3 April 7.30 pm
Newent Community School

Doors open 7.00pm, admission is free but come early as space is limited.

For directions and a map see: www.newent.gloucs.sch.uk

Seats may be reserved but please collect tickets by 7.15pm or seats may be reallocated if demand is high.

Submit a question or reserve a seat by email or phone:

food@transitionnewent.org.uk 01531 829909

Organised by Transition Newent
www.transitionnewent.org.uk